TEA FOR TWO HUNDRED 2012

Party time was the mantra for the 15th anniversary of the Tea for Two Hundred celebration and boy did it shake, rattle, and roll. Literally - guests were greeted at the gate by a rock and roll band pumping it out with great abandon! Billy Michael and the J & B Band were at their best since Rob Zombie was a special guest, along with his gorgeous actress wife, Sheri Moon Zombie. The Waterbury Symphony was the honoree this year, and conductor Leif Bjaland brought two of his musicians to entertain. The heavens shined on us once again with perfect dry summer weather, and all went swimming! The hat contest was bigger than ever with lots of fine entries, the silent auction was on fire, and the food was superb. Gary and I and the New Milford Visiting Nurses and the Danbury Interfaith Aids Ministry worked very hard to make it a great time for everyone. The net proceeds for the event were approximately $43,000. If you missed it, you should kick yourself. Thanks to donors, volunteers, and guests! See you next July.

The happy hosts - Gael Hammer and Gary Goodwin.

PEGUIN PLUNGE

On March 11th, hundreds of courageous people came together to support the Connecticut Special Olympics for the Annual Penguin Plunge in Middlebury. Onlookers cheered the plungers as they jumped in the frigid waters of Lake Quassapaug. Over $59,000 was raised by the Middlebury plungers. The money raised is used to support year-round sports training and athletic competition for Connecticut children and adults with intellectual disabilities.

PILOBOLUS

On June 30th, the 8th Annual Pilobolus Ball Fundraiser continued its enchanting tradition under the stars on the Great Lawn at Quatre Vents in Washington. Dinner was donated by Kent's Millstone Café and Bakery and open bar by Pernod Ricard USA. The fabulous and very popular silent auction offered a VIP Jets Package, African Safari and Exclusive dinner with the dancers themselves which of course thrilled the audience with their captivating performance.

LIVESTRONG

On November 18th, Patrick DePeters ran the Philadelphia Marathon on behalf of the Livestrong Foundation. Pat and his supporters raised $4,300 as part of the New York Marathon team that raised nearly $800,000. I pledged through Pat and congratulate him on his effort.

TEEN CANCER AMERICA

An extension of the Teen Cancer Trust already implemented in the UK, The Who's, Roger Daltrey and Pete Townshend, came together to form Teen Cancer America. The mission is to improve the quality of life for teens and young adults with cancer by partnering with hospitals to create facilities, develop support programs, and raise awareness during treatment and beyond. As founding board members, Maria and Dr. Glenn Taylor have been working tirelessly to help get the charity up and running in the United States. The Teen Cancer America Board is proud to announce the first teen unit has been completed at the Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center.
