KLEMM'S HAMMER HITS THE NAIL ON THE HEAD

(Washington, Connecticut)– Klemm Real Estate has brokered a sale in Washington with an asking price of $1.695 million. The sale represents the highest price paid for property in Washington in 2012. This is the latest in a string of record-breaking sales by the Klemm firm.

“The house was an historical farm house which once belonged to the well known musician Helen Armstrong, a woman who contributed mightily to the cultural life of the town and promoted music education in the schools. The sellers made it into one of the best listings I've ever represented, and I am extremely proud to have brought the buyers,” stated Gael Hammer, broker of Klemm Real Estate.

So far in 2012, Klemm has brokered the most multi-million-dollar sales throughout the county, as well as many into New York state.

Klemm Real Estate has offices located in Washington Depot, Woodbury, Litchfield, Roxbury, Lakeville/Salisbury and Sharon. Staffed by 40 associates serving Litchfield County for about 30 years.
