

THE ONLY LITCHFIELD COUNTY INTERNATIONAL PROPERTY AWARD WINNER YEAR AFTER YEAR 2003-2019

IT'S ALWAYS FUN TO COME ACROSS INTERESTING BELIEFS WHEN BUYING OR SELLING PROPERTIES

BUYING A HOME?

Look for homes that have the number eight somewhere in the list price. In China, this is said to be good luck.

SELLING A HOME?

Leave your broom behind. An old broom brings the dust and dirt of your old home and supposedly carries the negative aspects of your life. A new broom signifies a fresh start in your new home.

BREAD AND SALT

When you first enter a new home, bring bread and salt along with your new broom. After you cross the threshold, sprinkle salt in front of the door to keep evil spirits away.

PICK THE RIGHT DAY

Many believe that it's bad luck to move into a new house on a Friday or Saturday, or rainy day. Thursday is considered to be the luckiest day to move in.

NEVER CARRY A HOE INTO THE HOUSE

It's bad luck. If you accidentally do so, immediately walk through the same door to reverse the bad luck.

A SOUTHERN LEGEND

claims that painting your front porch blue will ward off ghosts. The ghosts, which can't cross water, mistake the blue porch for water and stay away.

SCATTER COINS

in the living room on the first day in your new home so prosperity will reign.

STUFF FENNEL INTO THE KEYHOLE

or hang it over your front door. This will protect your home from witches.

THE ANCIENT NORSE

believed that placing an acorn on a windowsill would protect the house from being struck by lightning.

EXIT THROUGH THE SAME DOOR YOU ENTERED

The first time you enter your new house, you should exit through the same door as you entered, or else you'll have bad luck. After you've entered and exited once, you can leave through any door.
