

Klemm Named Best Real Estate Agency

WASHINGTON — The Americas Property Awards, in association with Bloomberg Television, has named Klemm Real Estate the 2010 Best Real Estate Agency in Connecticut.

The Americas Property Awards is the U.S. arm of the International Property Awards, a competition that names the best real estate professionals across the globe.

Klemm is one of only eight firms nationwide, and the only firm in Connecticut, to be recognized this year.

The competition features real estate agencies from around the world, which are judged by a panel of independent professionals from various real estate-related disciplines.

The event's prestige has been recognized by many of the world's leading media organizations and luxury brands, which have sponsored the event during its 16 years.

"We are honored to receive this award as recognition of our achievement in both market share and marketing," said Graham Klemm, vice president of Klemm Real Estate.

"We are competing with the best real estate professionals across the globe. The fact that Klemm has won one of these coveted awards is proof that we triumph over our peers."

Klemm Real Estate has offices in Washington Depot, Woodbury, Litchfield, Roxbury, Lakeville/Salisbury and Sharon, staffed by 40 associates serving Litchfield County for approximately 30 years.
